People with fewer qualifications are already doing what you want to do. You are capable of more than you realize.

Elevate your circle.

Growth happens in rooms that challenge and inspire you. Who you surround yourself with matters.

Know your why.

A strong 'why' will carry
toughest 'how.'

Be intentional.

Every day. Every action.

Make it count.

Be relentless.

When you fall, get up.
Learn, iterate, repeat.
Success demands
persistence.

Build the right team.

Success isn't a solo sport.
Surround yourself with talent that fills your gaps
and believes in your vision.

Extreme accountability.

Embrace it. Expect it.

Demand it. Hold yourself and everyone else to a higher standard. Track it and live by it.

Never stop.

Be relentlessly persistent.
